

Vera Schneevoigt

Senior Vice President

Head of Product Supply Operations

Vera Schneevoigt is Senior Vice President, Product Supply Operations for Fujitsu's Service Platform Business. In this important part of our business, which serves more than 100,000 customers and 45,000 partners worldwide, she drives forward our strategic goals for operational excellence and our continuing globalization initiatives.

Vera is responsible for four areas: Research & Development, Purchasing, Production, Quality and Supply Chain Management. She plays a major role to realize our vision to integrate worldwide processes, which will help drive innovation, efficient production and delivery. In turn, this will allow our Product Business to support our global growth strategy in the key strategic areas of services and solutions.

Vera is also a member of the Managing Directors Board for Fujitsu Technology Solutions GmbH, which operates in the Europe, Middle East, India and Africa (EMEIA) region.

Before joining Fujitsu at the beginning of 2014, Vera spent a number of years as a global senior executive manager at Siemens and its subsidiaries. She has particular expertise in operations, supply chain management, business administration, procurement, IT, human resources and sales.

As Executive Vice President of Global Operations and Managing Director of Unify GmbH & Co. KG (formerly Siemens Enterprise Communications), Vera was responsible for purchase, logistics, factories, quality management, export and customs with over 1,700 employees worldwide. She was also the key driver for various transformation and optimization programs.

Previously, Vera oversaw operational management at Siemens Enterprise Communications, with responsibility for sales and business operations at the company's product business. She also held commercial responsibility for worldwide sales.

Vera is married, with interests ranging from history and architecture to promoting employee diversity.
