BS2000 documents in the internet

This is an overview of the presentations, description papers and white papers on BS2000 topics and products published in the internet.

How to use this list:

The current version of this list has been created on April 12, 2016.

Documents published in the internet after this date are not contained in this list but are available at BS2000 internet site at <http://ts.fujitsu.com/bs2000> .

Documents which have been removed from the internet after April 12, 2016 are no longer available using the links of this list.

The listed documents have been up-to-date when they were published. They will be updated usually in case of bigger changes. Nevertheless there is no guarantee for every document to be valid in detail. This applies especially to documents related to product versions which are no longer offered to the customers.
